Thank you for choosing us to assist you with the selling process of your items. This sheet is meant to detail our consignment process to you. If you have additional questions, please do not hesitate to ask.

Our consignment policy and additional information is outlined below.

Our consignment fee 75/25. The consigner sets the in-store price of the item(s) to be sold. If you need help determining a competitive price, we will be glad to assist you.

We ask that you understand our need to compete with various sources in considering your prices. We often sell our items online, with the option to ship exclusively at the buyer's expense. The consigner is not liable for any additional shipping cost or sales fee associated with online purchase.

With online sales, we reserve the right to increase the listed price of an item to compensate for fee and negotiation. You will always receive no less than your expected percentage upon a successful sale.

Should a consigner choose to take an item back for any reason, you may do so at any time.

All payments will be made to the consigner around the 1st of the following month in which an item was sold.

This page is yours to keep. A signed copy of page 2 will be held at Encore Thrift.
